related supplies only including books. Please no "e.harmony adds or used cars". Send info to Ray Branch for inclusion in the newsletter.

3. Carving supplies have been given to the club by a lady wants a carver to use these. The Board will decide guidelines regarding use – and perhaps these could be available for new carvers who come into the club at the show.

4. The website (thanks Rod for all the help) and the South Charlotte News continues to bring inquiries to the club for interest in membership, carving training for girl scouts, donation of wood, etc. I am looking for ideas from club members as to how we might publicize our activities even more. Let me know. Ray

SPECIAL ITEMS FOR NOVEMBER/DECEMBER, 2010

Following are news items which might be of special interest to club members:

1. The CWC was well represented at the 2010 Chitlin Strut in Salley, South Carolina in November, 2010 by our own Terrell Crowley. Terrell can tell you why you should make plans to go in 2011. And they selected a Chitlin Strut Queen as well.

2. Beginning in the January issue of the newsletter, we will have a column for "For Sale" of carving tools and supplies which members might wish to sell. Prices and negotiations and between seller and buyer. This is for carving

Roz Daisey's Gordon Gecko

ROZ DAISEY'S
VERMILION FLYCATCHER and GORDON GECKO WEEKEND
March 11, 12, 13 and March 14, 15, 16 2011

World famous carver and author of five extensive carving books, Roz Daisey, will be holding two-three day carving classes this March in Kernersville, NC. Roz's distinct abilities to teach carvers of all degrees of expertise makes her classes a joy for all. Excellent carving instructions with personal attention to each carver assures that each carver will end up with a carving he or she can be mighty proud to show off to friend and foe alike. Almost all jokes told have been screened through Public Radio Broadcasts.

Where: Don Reeser's Studio
1509 Creekbed Road
Kernersville, N.C. 27284
PHONE: (336) 993-3179
petvet@triad.rr.com

This is a power carving class, so bring a power carver like a Foredom or other high speed grinder rather than trying to keep up carving with a knife. A list of class supplies needed (table, chair, light, paints etc.) will be sent upon registration. Coffee, soft drinks and munchies will be furnished by Don and Nancy. Class limited to 12 persons.

Cost of class: $300 each, or $500 both Registration: Send check for $50, made out to Roz Daisey to Don at the above address. Directions and Motel information will be sent with deposit.

ELECTRONIC BROCHURE

Well to try to do our part about going green, approximately 2/3 of the carvers to be contacted about Showcase 2011 will be contacted electronically. All who registered for Showcase 2010 and included a valid email address, Charlotte Woodcarvers Club, Greenville Woodcarvers and Davison County Woodcarvers club members have been compiled into a distribution list to receive an electronic brochure for Showcase 2011. The e-brochure is provided in .pdf file format as well as word (.doc). You need only to be able to open and print one of these file format. You need only print the page containing the registration form.

If you have issues opening these files let me know. If you receive duplicate copies please respond to only one email. Those without email addresses will receive brochures in the mail.

Thanks

Earl
